12. Commissioner Reports

Commissioner DeGroot - He went on a tour of the Juvenile Department last week. He said he wanted to assure all citizens of the County that the operations up there are fantastic. All residents are being treated fairly and with respect. He said he really appreciates the program up there. They also attended the public meeting about the Brett Way and Homedale round-about project. He said he appreciated all the folks that came out to the meeting. He also spoke to Klamath Housing Authority last week to do some planning and figure out housing.

Commissioner Boyd - He also went on the tour of the Juvenile Department. He said, the prospective from reading the newspaper and actually going on a tour is like flipping a light switch, it is that different. He said, he didn't see anything that anyone would be ashamed of to have in their county. It is a very well ran facility. They spoke to several of the young woman there and they seemed happy and were excited we were there visiting with them. The facility is very clean and very orderly. He has been working with the Property Department to find ways to tear down more delatpitated buildings that the County owns. The roof at the 705 Washburn building collapsed due to snow load so they will be working to get that building on the ground sooner rather than later.
