On Tuesday, October 4th, 2022 at approximately 5:30 pm Klamath County Sheriff's Office deputies responded to 153000 block of Derri CT near LaPine, on a report of a shooting. A local resident reported that he and his neighbor engaged in an argument and as a result the neighbor shot at him.

Deputies arrived on scene and met with the resident who told them the neighbor had shot at him after an argument. After further investigation deputies attempted to contact the neighbor, who was identified as Jason Funk age 54, who refused to come out.

After a long standoff where numerous deputies including the Sheriff's Office SRT (Special Response Team) were mobilized to the scene, Jason Funk surrendered at 5:30AM this morning outside his residence and was taken into custody. Charges include:

Attempted assault I
Unlawful use of a weapon
Menacing
